8. DISCUSSION/ACTION ON A RESOLUTION SUPPORTING A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO MAKE ALL COUNTY ELECTED OFFICIALS NON-PARTISAN POSITIONS

Diane Fremgen told the committee that none of the current Winnebago County elected officials had a problem with this amendment. It was noted that none of the elected officials are in a policy making position. Jef Hall felt that the county clerk would be an exception to this, as that position deals with elections, and it is his feeling that the public has a right to know the political party associated with the clerk overseeing the elections.
