MEMORIAL ON DEATH OF HENRY F. DOWLING.

Supervisor Korotev offered the following memorial:

To the Honorable, the Board of Supervisors of Winnebago County, Wisconsin.

Ladies and Gentlemen: Again we are called upon to record the passing of one of our number, the Great Ruler having called from our midst, Brother Henry F. Dowling. It is fitting that we should pause in our labors to pay tribute to the memory of our brother.

We knew him as a co-worker-conscientious, tireless and just; as a friend-loyal, frank and true. He was ever ready with his wise counsel to give aid to the members of the Board, as individuals and as a whole. His ready wit and cheerful outlook upon life endeared him to all with whom he came into contact, and in the spirit that

"So live that when thy summons comes to join

The innumerable caravan, which moves

To that mysterious realm, where each shall take

His chamber in the silent halls of death,

Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night,

Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed

By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave

Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch

About him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

Therefore be it resolved, that in the passing of our brother, this Board has lost a respected and valued member, and the community a valuable

And be it further resolved, that the Board tender its most sincere sympathy to the family of our departed brother, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this meeting, and a copy sent to the family. May 10, 1926.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY M. BILLMEYER,

THOMAS RYAN,

CHARLES A. KOROTEV.

On motion adopted by a rising vote.

REPORT NO. 1, ROAD BUILDING SITUATION.

Supervisor Spore offered the following Report No. 1. To the County Board of Winnebago County, Wisconsin:

Your county highway committee beg leave to report as follows as to the road building situation in Winnebago county at this time:

Your committee report that construction of County Trunk E, from Bell school house to the village of Eureka, is progressing well, and in all probability said highway will be completed of concrete by September of this season. That the washing plant operated for the county by the Lampert Construction Company is working well, and that there is an abundance of road material in sight which can be obtained at a reasonable figure while the machinery and equipment are at the present site, and it is the opinion of your committee that Highway E should be completed this season from the village of Eureka south two miles to Highway 34 at Koro's Corners, and that Highway No. 34 should be constructed from that point to the Green Lake county line, for the purpose of taking advantage of the economic production of road materials while the machinery is at its present location.

Your committee further report that there is available in the county patrol and maintenance fund, the sum of $28,000.00; in the machinery fund of the county the sum of $30,000.00, and in the state aid bridge fund the sum of $12,000.00, which may be borrowed from these funds for this season for the construction of County Highway E and State Trunk Highway 34, as hereinefore set out.

Your committee report further that it will not be possible to complete all of Highway 26 from Gillingham's Corner north to county line, this season, and that the state aid money for the construction of Highway 26 will not be available until 1927, and it is therefore the opinion of your committee that the construction of Highway 26 should be postponed until 1927, which would make available the sum of $50,000.00 which could be used for the construction of said County Trunk E and Trunk Highway 34.

Further it is the belief of your committee that said sums of money hereinbefore described should be borrowed temporarily only, for the present season, and repaid to the funds from which borrowed out of the 1927 appropriations for those purposes.

Your committee therefore respectfully call your attention to the foregoing facts and situations, and recommend that this Board at this time take all steps necessary to provide for the completion of County Trunk Highway E and State Trunk Highway 34, as hereinbefore set out. Respectfully submitted,

ERNST RADDATZ, S. O. BUSSEY, M. F. WHITE, WM. GRIMES, GEORGE SPORE.

On motion accepted.

Resolved further that the county highway committee be and it is hereby instructed to cause to be constructed of concrete eighteen feet in width, that certain highway known as state trunk highway 34, beginning with its intersection with county trunk highway E at Koro's Corners, and extending thence to the county line of Green Lake county, and known as highway 34.

Resolved, for the purpose of constructing said highways aforesaid, that there be and there is hereby ordered transferred from the county patrol and maintenance fund, the sum of $28,000.00 and from the machinery fund of the county, the sum of $30,000.00, and $12,0000.00 from state aid bridge fund, to be used in the construction of said county highway E, and state trunk highway 34, as aforesaid, said amounts to be borrowed from said funds for said construction, for the present season, and to be repaid when available from the funds of the 1927 highway appropriations.

Net gain of county fair operation in 1926 — $1,763.18. Of the $10,000 received from the county board in 1926, $250.00 was paid to the Wisconsin State Poultry association of Oshkosh, $250.00 was paid to the Twin-City Poultry association of Neenah-Menasha, and $8,500 was spent for permanent improvements, leaving a balance of $1,000 from the 1926 appropriation to apply on new stock judging pavilion next year. The $2,000 which has always been appropriated for county fair main-tenance has always been spent on permanent improvements on the county's land, it not being necessary so far to use any of this amount in the operation in the operation of our fair.

This report makes the eighth consecutive time that our fair has shown a net gain in operation, a record not duplicated by any other county fair in America. Our net gain in 1926 is very gratifying indeed, considering the very bad weather we experenced throughout the entire fair week.

During the past three years the Winnebago County Fair association has expended over $22,000 from fair income in permanent improvements on the county's land.

Continued co-operation will enable us to maintain our reputation as "America's Foremost County Fair."

Respectfully yours.

T. G. BROWN, Secretary,

On motion received and placed on file. COUNTY FAIR RESOLUTION-1926.

Supervisor Macke offered the following Resolution No. 2:

Oshkosh, Wis., Nov. 10, 1926. To the Honorable, the Board of Supervisors of Winnebago County, Wisconsin:

Your committee on county fair makes the following re-Gentlemen: port and recommendations:

That the report of the secretary of the Winnebago County Fair 1. Association be received and placed on file.

That $1.000 be paid on the contract with Nevitt Brothers. 2.

That $2,000 be appropriated for the maintenance of the county 3 fair

That the sum of $8,000 be appropriated for the permanent improvements on the county fair grounds, such improvements to be located provements on the county fair grounds, such improvements to be located on the land belonging to the county or contracted for by the county. 5. That the Winnebago County Fair Association pay out of the sum of $2,000 appropriated for maintenance, the amount of $250 to the Wis-consin State Poultry Association of Oshkosh, and the sum of $250 to the Twin-City Poultry Association of Neenah-Menasha. The judgment of this committee is that the county fair appropriation should be kept together under the head of the county fair, and the county fair make the adjustment of funds with the poultry associations.

Be it further resolved, that the above mentioned sums be placed in the county budget for 1927, to be paid out on the order of the county clerk upon written recommendation of the county fair committee and chairman of the county board.

	All of the 96 schools have been visited at least twice	and some of

All of the 96 schools have been visited at least twice and some of them three times since making the last report. During the school year 1924-25, I made 186 visits, most of them one-fourth day visits, in inspecting the schools and assisting the teacher. Eight night meetings were attended during the year.

Group meetings were held on Saturdays. Miss Ryss had charge of these meetings. We met regularly once a month with Mr. Patch and Miss Berg of Omro, to discuss questions pertaining to Omro graduates in the county. We cooperated with the training department at Omro and the Oshkosh Normal in permitting practice teachers to do observation and practice work in the county. Talks on methods and office records were given to both departments.

In accordance with the law, the county superintendent appointed the supervising teacher for a term of ten months, beginning in August, 1926, and ending in June, 1927. The supervising teacher is to supervise and assist, under the direction of the county superintendent, the teachers employed in the schools, of the county or superintendent district, devoting special attention to the less experienced teachers.

 The following is a summary of the work done by Miss Anna Ryss for the year beginning August, 1925, and ending June, 1926:

 Number of days spent in visitation of schools

 Number of days spent in assisting at teachers' meetings

 9

 Number of days spent in office and clerical work

 55

 Number of days spent in community work

 19

 Number of days spent on diploma examinations

The total cost of the supervising teacher and expense for the school year 1925-26 was $2,766.21. The state reimburses the county for this full amount.

In the present year 115 visits have been made. Reports were made on most of the visits. The bulletins that were issued from the office in 1924-25 are being used as they cover the even year's work. Miss Ryss cooperates with the office by sending out ability tests which cover six weeks' period of work. Teaching helps are sent out during the year. A great deal of credit for the results obtaind in the county is due Miss Ryss for her splendid cooperation and most efficient work in supervision.

Two general institutes and five group meetings were held during the year.

The teachers' county institute fund is used for the expenses of speakers at these institutes. The state apportions a certain amount for this fund each year. Following is a report of the county institute fund of Winnebago County for the year 1925-26:

Receipts.

Money on hand June 30, 1925
Total receipts	$181.67
Disbursements.
Expenses of institute conductors
Total disbursements	$109.34
Balance on hand June 30, 1926	$72.33

Certification.

There are 119 teachers in the county. Of these, 86 have first grade certificates, 22 second grade, 1 third grade and 11 rural normal certificates. Those with a rural normal certificate are given a first grade county certificate, thus we have 97 teachers with a first grade certificate, or an increase of 12 over last year.

Increase of 12 over last year. Special state aid is given to teachers who remain in the same school for more than one year. Thirty-seven teachers received this aid last year, as compared with thirty-five of the year before. This year there are forty-seven teachers who are staying in the district for more than one year. Naturally this encourages the teachers to remain in the district and has a tendency to raise the quality of work being done.

Improvements.

We are pleased to report that many schools were remodeled during the year. Seventeen schools received special state aid last year as compared with thirteen of the year before. Since making the last report, a state grade school at Waukau has been completed and two one-room schools are nearing completion. Another district has voted to build in the spring. The keen interest in matters of this kind is surely appreciated by this office.

Attendance.

For 1923-24 the average daily attendance was 86%. In 1924-25 it was 83%, while for 1925-26 it was about 87%. This increase in attendance is due to the cooperation of the parents, as well as the personality and teaching strength of the teacher.

Reading Circle.

The teachers belong 100% to the local county teachers' association, which authorizes the superintendent to buy three professional reading circle books. Written reports are made on books read and same is sent to the office. 118 teachers earned reading circle diplomas or seals, 1,857 pupils earned reading circle diplomas or seals. Of these, there were 1,504 pupils in rural schools, 66 in state graded, and 287 in grades below high school.

County Fair.

There were in the neighborhood of 800 entries last year at the fair, with 44 schools represented. The fair material was judged during the summer months. The county had a very worthwhile exhibit at the state fair. The Vosburg school took third place in the state and first in the county. In addition, entries from the county received several first, second, third and fourth prizes. The county booth also received a place.

We plan on a bigger and better exhibit next year, as the county list has been revised to meet the requirements of the state list. I am voicing the sentiments of the teachers, pupils and parents when I say that we are grateful to the fair association for the splendid new educational building that was built this year.

Products Exposition.

One hundred and twenty-three eighth grade pupils wrote essays for the Wisconsin Manufacturers' association. Each contestant was given credit in language. The winning boy and girl were given a two-day free trip to the Milwaukee state fair, with all expenses paid. In each county the county superintendent or supervising teacher acted as chaperone. We wish to publicly acknowledge our appreciation of the splendid opportunity afforded by the association.

Thrift.

About the same number of schools had savings accounts last year as the year before. The amount deposited was considerably more. The banks of the county no longer have direct charge of this work. A thrift corporation of Chicago is taking over the work in the county.

Survey.

Following is the summary of a survey made recently in the county. This affords a splendid opportunity for correcting physical defects and suggesting improvements:

Health and Play Day.

A county wide health and play day was held at Omro in May of this year. Fully seventy-five per cent of the schools cooperated in making this day a success. A mammoth parade, games and stunts, athletic events, May-pole dance and community singing were the important events of the day. It is hoped that a similar event will be given again. next year.

The past year has been the most pleasant because of the splendid cooperation this office has had with the following individuals and organizations: County board, school boards, teachers, supervising teacher, county nurse, office deputy and county clerk. Dated November 10, 1926.

Respectfully submitted, AVERY C. JONES,

County Superintendent.

CHRIS. ANDERSON.

Chairman of the Town of Algoma." On motion referred to the county highway committee.

REPORT OF COUNTY NURSE. Miss Ada Newman, county nurse, offered the following Report No. 8: To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Winnebago County:

Gentlemen: The object of an annual report is to show progress. The public health program in Winnebago county has grown, both from a point of service rendered to the county and from the cooperation and enthusiasm accorded the health program from the various clubs and organized groups in the county.

During this year Winnebago county organized the first county health organization in the state. Through the interest of its members much of the work mentioned in this report has been made possible.

Report of School Inspection.

The report of school inspection is as follows: Number of pupils given complete inspection

것 같은
Number of pupils given partial inspection
Number of nunits with defects
Number of notices to parents
Number of talks to school pupils
Number of school visits 254
Number of parents attending 374
Number of absentees investigated
Percentage of defects noted: Teeth, 52 percent; tonsils, 20 percent; vision. 5 percent; hearing, 2 percent; goiter, 54 percent; skin defects or infections, 3 percent; nasal obstructions, 5 percent. Seventy-four percent of the children have remediable defects.
cent of the children have remediable derects.

The following shows a very high percentage of corrections made during the past year: Corrections of teeth, 24 percent; corrections of tonsils, 18.5 percent: corrections of vision and eyes, 42.4 percent.

Home Visits.

Homes were visited as follows:
For correction of defects
Suspected communicable diseases	. 52
Other visits in regard to child welfare, mental deficiencies, chronic	3
diseases, posture, and neglected children	. 175
Visits to blind	. 10
Visits to orthopedic	6
Visits to tuberculosis patients and their families	. 54
Office Work.
Individual conferences	. 68
Phone calls	. 99
Newspaper items	. 8
Letters and pamphlets sent out

The percentage of underweight children is less than noted last year. The summary of last year's work showed about 30% below average. For this year we have noted about 26%.

In many instances corrections of defects are not reported and unless it is something such as removal of tonsils or filling of teeth, which is a visible correction, it is not recorded.

Corrections of poor or careless habits of living, eating, and bad posture come in this class. These have a great bearing upon the child's development, but are not easy to keep record of. It is in the correction of bad health habits and in the formation of correct habits of living that the greatest field of opportunity lies. Health education is not being neglected. The rural teachers are cooperating in a splendid manner in the program for positive health instruction. Although results do not lend themselves to figures and percents, they show in the lives of the boys and girls.

Goiter prevention is being generally adopted in the county. Sixty-seven schools are cooperating in this work. 1,860 children are taking the prevention treatment this year.

We are also making progress in control of contagion. Last year there were fewer number of days that schools were closed because of contagion than in the four years preceding: 1922, 46 days; 1923, 107 days; 1924, 38 days; 1925, 87 1/2 days; 1926, 21 days.

Water Analyzed.

At the suggestion of the nurse, town health officers sampled the wells which furnish water for the schools. Many were found unsafe. Advice was given to close the well for school use until it could be pumped out and a further analysis made. Many cases of intestinal disturbances, commonly known as "summer flu," find their origin in the drinking water. In such cases much time is lost from school for this reason. Tuberculosis.

The plan for the work in control of tuberculosis is to cooperate with county, city and state organizations. Homes are visited to encourage the patient in the long program of aking "the cure" and to instruct the fam-If in methods of program of arms the encourage the frequent examination of contact cases. We have twenty-four such families where visits are made. Thirty-nine suspected cases had one or more chest examinations.

Diphtheria.

The health committee is endeavoring to spread information in regard. to the prevention of this preventable disease. We have no funds to employ a physician or establish clinics for the administration of toxin-anti-toxin as is being done in the city of Oshkosh and which is generally done In the larger cities. We are endeavoring to give preventive measures as much publicity as we possibly can. We hope to work out a plan whereby local communities may arrange for clinics for this purpose. Pre-School Child Clinics.

Three clinics for the examination of children below school age were held. 136 children were examined. Physicians donated their time for this service. Mothers showed great interest in instruction received at these clinics. Many corrections have been made. One permanent health center established in Neenah by the Neenah Visiting Nurses' association for pre-school work is serving the rural communities as well as the two cities.

Orthopedic and Rehabilitation.

An orthopedic clinic was held under the auspices of the Elks' club. An invitation was extended to crippled rural children of the county. Fourteen were examined. Advice was given in regard to corrective work. One case was taken to the Wisconsin General hospital where very satisfactory correction was made. He now has partial use of a formerly paralyzed arm.

Arrangements have been made for vocational education for five cases and two more are pending the decision of the individuals concerned.

Social Service Work.

It is impossible to do health work without doing some purely social work. 28 such cases were brought to my attention during the year. These cases of maladjustment are very difficult and require repeated visitation.

Because of the details involved and because those cases are so close to the lives of those whom we are trying to help they cannot be discussed in a public way. Our aim has been to help each individual to help himself.

General Health Instruction.

An effort has been made to enlist the support of parents and organized groups in health work. To this end 35 public meetings were attended. Talks on health subjects were presented. Much of the work which has been accomplished is the direct result of the splendid cooperation and interest of the people in the various parts of the county.

interest of the people in the various parts of the county. Group meetings are being held with the teachers to assist them in health instruction and to keep more closely in touch with the schools of the county.

Health and Play Day.

One of the most outstanding events of the past year was the countywide health and play day held at Omro, Wis., May 15, 1926. It was a most successful termination of a cooperative plan worked out by the county educational department, the county agent's office and the county health department. With the combined efforts of the above mentioned, and individuals from the county a large, the cities of Neenah, Menasha and Oshkosh and the villages of Omro and Winneconne, a health and play day program was launched which has not before been equalled in the history of the county.

play day program was launched which has not before been equance ... the history of the county. The events of the day opened with a gay parade in which hundreds of children from the rural and village schools pictured good health in various ways. A second feature of the program was the games for the young and old, played on the athletic field, under the direction of Dr. Elson of the University of Wisconsin. The pageant "Crowning the Queen of Health" was given as the afternoon program. In a fitting manner hundreds of children did homage to their queen through folk dances and drills. The evening entertainment consisted of community singing and a May-pole drill by the Omro High school.

That means of recreation is desired by the rural people was plainly evidenced by the keen interest and cooperation shown in this undertaking. Thousands of adults from all sections of the county came to join with the children in the fun of the day. All who attended sensed the spirit of the idea and helped in every way to make it a success. To the people of Omro much credit is due for the splendid manner in which they as a community extended their nospitality. To the teachers of the county and to those who so untiringly gave their services in various capacities we wish to express our deep appreciation. It is our hope that this first health and play day, which was so wonderfully successful, may be made an annual event in Winnebago county.

REPORT OF SPECIAL APPROPRIATION FOR HANDICAPPED CHILDREN.

Special appropriation of $300.00 for the care of handicapped children, whose parents could not afford to give medical care, was made at the March meeting.

Norman's parents have spent their surplus in trying to care for him. In his present condition he can never attend public school. There was a question as to a possibility of having a correction made. To date, Norman has had five examinations made, two fluorascopic and two with anesthesia. The doctors concluded that he may have a correction made. This will necessitate taking him to a Chicago specialist of this particular line of work.

These little people extend their thanks to you for making it possible for them to be like the other children.

The happiness of the people depends upon the health of the people. Promote health, and you promote happiness.

COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT'S ANNUAL REPORT.

G. A. Sell, county agricultural agent, offered the following Report No. 10:

To the Honorable, County Board of Supervisors, Winnebago County, Wisconsin:

Gentlemen: I am pleased to submit herewith for your consideration the annual report of county agricultural agent work in Winnebago county for the year ending October 31, 1926, in brief outline form. GUSTAV A. SELL, County Agricultural Agent.

Program of work on project basis adopted by county agricultural committee, county agent and district supervisor, November 12, 1926. Major projects—1. More sweet clover for pasture; 2—Make more profitable poultry; 3—Helps for the homemakers. Minor projects—1. Orchard improvement; 2—Economical swine raising: 3-Boys' and girls' club work.

Sweet Clover for Pasture.

To encourage the more general use of sweet clover for pasture in Winnebago county, fifteen farmers cooperated in starting that many dem-onstration plots last year. These were followed up through the spring and summer, not only to observe results, but also to help the owners use the sweet clover for best results. With the attention that had been directed to sweet clover the previous year and with the added publicity given through the paper during this year the acreage seeded this spring was very greatly increased. The amount reported to the assessors in their crop statistics varies from 5 acres to 211 acres per town, and the total reported for the whole county is 1,321 acres. This perhaps includes a little cut for hay or seed, but far the greater part of it was used for pasture. The figures may not be entirely accurate, since this is the first year that sweet clover was listed in the crop reports, but they do indicate that considerable interest has been aroused and our farmers are begin-that considerable interest has been groused and our farmers are been ning to try this crop for better pastures. Towards the close of the summer two tours were held to visit some of these demonstration plots. From eight to ten sweet clover pastures were visited on each tour and the total attendance was twenty-five. This com-paratively small attendance is no measure of the interest in the proposi-tion but means the formation concentration to the buen at their $28300 tion, but merely shows that farmers generally are too busy at that season of the year.

To Make Poultry More Profitable.

Five culling demonstrations were held in the fall with an attendance of forty people. Similar demonstrations have been held for quite a few years now with the result that a good many people can now tell a good egg laying type of hen by her looks and condition as well as a good milk producing type of cow.

In addition to these five culling demonstrations there were eight demonstrations held during the summer that took up disease control as well as culling methods. One hundred and ten people attended, even though it came in a busy season. Tuberculosis and worm control were stressed. More attention will have to be paid to those problems in the future it poultry raising is carried on more and more intensively.

During the month of March, with the assistance of a practical poultry man secured through the Wisconsin Farmers' Institutes, thirteen poultry schools were held; six hundred and eleven people attended, divided up equally into grown-ups and older rural school pupils. Egg production, housing, chick rearing and disease control were discussed. Nine hundred and thirty-seven poultry bulletins on these subjects were asked for and later sent from this office. Two hundred and forty-nine pupils submitted written reports on what they learned and received 10 percent credit in their final agriculture examination.

Number of flocks receiving some meat scraps	82

Number of flocks getting no milk at all 7	44

Since meat scraps or milk are absolutely essential for balancing an egg ration for economical egg production, this study indicates that from half to two-thirds of our farm flocks are not as profitable as they might be.

Poultry housing, which was given considerable attention at the poultry schools, was followed up in a practical way through the season with helps and suggestions for remodeling houses wherever called for. Two new houses were built under our supervision according to the so-called university straw loft type. More have been planned for next year. These will serve as demonstrations of practical farm poultry houses.

will serve as demonstrations of practical farm poultry houses. One tour the early part of the season was made to a neighboring county to inspect the flock management and especially the straw loft house of our poultry school instructor. Seventeen people participated.

Thirteen chick rearing projects were started with the help of the poultry specialist to demonstrate successful chick rearing methods. The so-called university chick ration from home grown feeds was used in most cases. Complete records were kept and turned in by seven, which gives us very valuable data on the cost of raising chicks.

An attempt was made to start six flocks on a balanced egg ration trial. Since it was mid-summer the flocks were first culled with the help of our specialist to get rid of the boarders, and then a good egg ration was planned for them. Two of these cooperators carried the work through to completion and submitted the records. These showed that the production of a flock could be nearly maintained through the early part of the summer when the feed is balanced by sufficient amount of milk or meat scraps.

Above projects on housing, chick rearing and feeding were made the basis for ten demonstration meetings. Since these were planned all for one day and in succession quite a few folks went along to a number of these projects and made a poultry tour out of it. Seventy-four different People attended.

Further work is being planned through our rural schools to bring about more general use of balanced egg rations in order to make egg production a more profitable side line to our dairy farmers. Two of the projects now being arranged with the help of the county superintendent and supervising teacher will give the older pupils practical and interesting poultry work that will probably be worth more than reading all the poultry books that they could get hold of.

Helps for the Homemaker.

Five homemakers' classes were organized this year, largely in the same communities that had the foods and cooking work the previous year. Each class met five times with the home economics specialist from the university. Total attendance was 575. Later the members of these groups in turn held at least 47 meetings in their own neighborhood and through them as well as by personal contact passed on the work.

The county-wide get-together or achievement day held last August was attended by 300 farm women, largely from these groups. Following are some of the outstanding achievements reported: Working surfaces changed to correct height..... 124 74 Equipment improved New equipment as suggested (labor saving devices)..... 132 Kitchens arranged more conveniently..... 143 Suggestions followed for removal of stains..... 161 Improved pieces of laundry equipment..... 41 Suggestions for dry cleaning used..... 61 Outdoor home surroundings beautified..... 415 Rooms papered, calcimined or painted..... 126 Rooms rearranged more convenient or attractive 113 Curtains made or changed 120 Pictures rehung 75

Orchard Improvement.

Orchard improvement, even though classed as a minor project, was perhaps somewhat pushed aside this year on account of the greater amount of time required in the poultry work. Only one demonstration was held last spring on pruning and grafting of fruit trees.

The Clemansville spray ring was reorganized with a new operator in charge. Twenty-six orchards were sprayed by him under our supervision. The other two rings we had did not do much this year. In one, the work had been done by a farmer with his own power sprayer, and he was able to cover only a few orchards this year. In the other, the operator took up road work and could not be replaced so late in the season.

If good men can be found for the job of spraying, I am sure a number of rings can be organized, and the quality of fruit for home use and market will be very greatly improved.

Boys' and Girls' Club Work.

New interest has come in Winnebago county to the boys' and girls' club work. It would seem that boys and girls should be given every opportunity to take part in this club work because of the interest it gives them in farm operations as well as because of the practical project they have to carry on at home. To enlarge this work, however, there is need of more people to act as supervising local leaders for such groups of boys and girls. Rural school teachers can fill this place to some extent. Two schools had organized calf clubs this year with five and six members each. One of them had a calf club show at their spring school plenic. Some of the calves were exhibited at the county fair.

In another part of the county, with the help of a good leader, a girls' canning club of ten members was organized. This club held demonstrations in at least three places in the county besides at the county fair. They also sent a canning team to the state fair that placed third out of five in the canning team competition.

Economical Swine Raising.

The ton litter contest sponsored in cooperation with our county fair had three entries this year, two of which were shown at the county fair. Heavy losses of pigs kept quite a few from getting into this contest be cause their litters were not large enough; that is the very thing that we are trying to get away from, for, if the contest does anything, it encourages large litters just as much as it encourages good feeding.

Three projects of feeding pigs on pasture were very successful in economical production and in getting the pigs ready for market quickly. The following table summarizes the most important facts of these feeding trials:

7	Gunnell Merk	Zentner
۰.	Average daily gains per pig	s. 1.05 lbs
Ľ	Amount of grain consumed per 100 lbs. pork. 352 1/2 lbs. 276 lbs	485 lbs.
	Cost of grain per 100 lbs. pork $4.87 $3.38

Cost of all feeds, including whey and pasture.. $6.07 $5.39 $7.48 The heavy use of grain and the smaller average daily gains on the last project makes it come out highest in the cost of pork production. Two reasons for this probably are that the pasture was not so good as on the other projects and that a heavy protein supplement such as tankage was not used. Comparisons of the results on these three projects with the not used. Comparisons of the results on these times projects with the feed requirements of hogs that did not have good pasture indicate that from 25 to 50 percent less grain is required to grow spring pigs on alfalfa pasture.

Demonstration meetings were advertised at the closing of each project when the pigs were weighed up. The first two found farmers too busy: the last was attended by about a dozen neighbors.

Other Main Lines of Work-Tuberculosis Eradication.

As reported a year ago, our petitions for county area test, after a long educational campaign and strenuous canvass, had received sufficient sig-natures. The official hearing by the state department was held on Feb-ruary 12 and the petitions declared sufficient.

The first testing was started about March 1, around Waukau, for those farmers who were selling their milk to be shipped to Chicago. The fact that one veterinary tested over three hundred farmers' herds by April 1. after which no milk from untested herds was allowed in Chicago, shows the efficiency of our state force on this tuberculosis eradication work. This one man was then kept at work testing that entire part of the county.

The main crew of testers did not arrive until August. By the end of September every single cow in the county was tested and all reactors had been disposed of.

With the proportion of our cattle reacting only about 21/2 percent, Winnebago county farmers can feel themselves very fortunate to get this disease under control before it had a chance to get as bad as in the older dairy sections, for some of the southern counties lost as much as one-fifth to one-fourth of all their cattle.

The wisdom of our thoroughly educational campaign to bring about a full understanding of the test and of the danger in this disease was shown by the good cooperation given the testers. Dr. Myhers stated upon leaving that he found the best people to work with in this county than any county he has been in.

To make the cleanup more sure, infected herds are being retested every six months until they have had at least one clean test, after two or three years the entire county will be retested, and if we then have less than one-half of one percent of reactors we will be declared a modified accredited tuberculous free county.

Lime and Alfalfa.

After some seven or eight years of intensive work for more alfalfa. this crop has reached a place where it has become an adopted practice on a majority of our dairy farms and ought to be able to speak for itself to the rest of them. Winnebago county is in fact one of the two foremost alfalfa growing counties of Wisconsin, there being only one other county having as large a proportion of its cultivated acreage in affalta. alfalfa. For this reason it was felt by your agricultural committee that general promotion work on alfalfa was hardly necessary any more.

There is, however, one considerable area in the northwest part of the county that cannot raise alfalfa successfully yet until the soil is limed. There may be other smaller areas in a similar situation. Work was done in this one area to promote the use of lime. After a number of conferences with leading farmers and with the stone grinders a larger meeting was held at Orihula. Arrangements were made for a man to grind for agricultural purposes in the Readfield ledge. Reports at the end of the summer indicated that some four hundred tons of lime were used in our county. Another man did considerable grinding later in the season, but we have no record on the amount distributed into our county by him. As a result, it is entirely probable that several hundred acres of alfalfa have been sown in this territory that otherwise would not have been. Another year we plan to follow this up further with demonstrations at some of these alfalfa fields and with further boosting for the liming of these sour soils.

Cow Testing Associations.

Since cow testing associations can and do help their member dairymen greatly in culling herd and learning the best feeding practices, in pro-ducing milk economically and hence making profits bigger, considerable time is given each year by the county agent to keep several associations going.

One new cow testing association was started, the Winchester-Clayton, partly the result of preliminary work done in this territory last year. A good tester was secured for the members and is apparently giving good satisfaction.

The Oshkosh association, reorganized last year with difficulty, finished a very successful year with their new man, is now reorganized, and starting another year's work.

The Neenah association just finished their year the first of the month and is now in the process of reorganization.

Development of other methods of cow culling have been watched very closely. Two other systems used last year in other counties apparently merit consideration. The one used in Outagamie county has only one tester for 160 herds. Samples are sent to him by the farmers through the mail. The cost per farmer is only about half that of the standard C. T. A. The other system used in Portage and Jefferson counties for the last year or so has farmers send samples of milk from the individual cows to their creamery or milk plant and tested there at a very nominal charge. Neither of these systems gives the dairyman much help in feeding suggestions. Nevertheless, one of them may be worthy of adoption in our county to supplement our regular cow testing association work by reaching a much greater number of herds to get rid of boarder cows.

Teaching Farm Accounting.

Through the cooperation of our county school superintendent and his assistants, the teaching of farm accounting has been carried on for the third year in our rural schools. Since this is extra arithmetic work for the pupils, some credit is given them on their final arithmetic examination. Three hundred and twenty-eight pupils availed themselves of this the past year. This number is a little less than the previous year because the eighth grade pupils that had the practice work before did not have to repeat it, and only a few of them kept records on their home business. We are not at all discouraged that not more of the older pupils have kept their home records as hoped. They at least have had the practice and will find it easier to keep business records of any kind as they grow up.

War Salvaged Explosives.

During the year 4,600 pounds of war salvaged explosive was distributed to farmers in the county. Since the cost of this is only about nine cents a pound as compared to thirty-three and six tenths cents for an equivalent amount of commercial dynamite, a saving of twenty-four and six tenths a pound or a total of $1,131.60 was effected. To set forth the best known methods for using explosives safely three blasting demonstrations were held with the land clearing specialist, $1 people attended. They seemed much impressed with the ease with which stumps and stones could be taken out of the way.

Cooperative Organization.

The county agent together with the agent from the neighboring county during the year organized the Fox River Valley Cooperative Creameries Association with eight out of a possible fourteen now signed up. A four-day tour was conducted to northwestern Wisconsin and Minnesota to investigate both their methods of improving and standardizing butter as well as the results of the cooperative selling through the Land O' Lakes Cooperative Creameries. The tour has resulted in crystalizing sentiment for inaugurating field service.

County agent also cooperated with local officials of our cheese federation branch at Neenah in holding a farmers' get-together meeting in the warehouse, also on a summer picnic.

With the cooperation of a representative of the Livestock Sales Agency at Milwaukee, efforts have been started to get the farmers around Winneconne an opportunity to revive their shipping association for the cooperative selling of their livestock.

Miscellaneous Lines of Work.

Utility class for the poultry show. Efforts were made to have farmers exhibit in this class showing egg producing ability so that poultry show officials will be encouraged to make more of this practical department.

Improvement of fluid milk supply. A number of conferences were held on this subject not only with such producers as members of the Guernsey association, but also with consumer representatives such as League of Women Voters, health committee of the better cities contest, and health officials. The city ordinance allowing only milk from tuberculin tested herds was held off until the county area test was made.

Through the state Grange officials in this part of the state, special interest was aroused in last winter's farmers' week at the college of sericulture. The special coach carried a delegation from this and neighboring county with a delegation of nearly sixty people, many of these stayed for most of the course.

On account of particularly successful work in home economics, I was invited and asked to speak at the Indiana county agent conference. Also acted as delegate for our Wisconsin state county agent association. At-tended the entire Indiana conference to observe their methods.

Assistance to cattle buyers was given in the case of several people. from Mexico that were new to Wisconsin, also to a number of farmers from Pennsylvania. Details of this work is practically all handled through breed association representatives or local dealers.

Farm and city relations. Two lines of effort were made. First, to get businessmen and farmers together at various farm organization meetings and picnics, second, as chairman of the Kiwanis club's farm and city relations committee. Several of the Oshkosh club's meetings have been given over to discussion of farm problems. One of these was devoted to cooperative effort and at that program Prof. Macklin demonstrated that cooperation among farmers bring about the same results that corporation organization does in business.

Farm products booths at the county fair. With the help of one of the fair directors, three local granges and one community club were inter-ested to each put on one of these displays at the county fair this fall. Some service was given to each group, discussing methods of putting up such exhibits and the materials therefore.

Hog cholera control. This dreaded swine plague broke out the latter part of October in three sections of the county. Veterinarians and farmers were promptly put on the watch and the state hog disease specialist called in. In two sections the outbreak seems to be held in check. In the third section perhaps because the disease was present longer before it was known it has spread to over a dozen herds. Neighboring farmers have been warned both in person and through the paper to take the utmost precaution so that this trouble shall not spread farther.

Drainage surveys, suggestions and plans were given as requested. Besides a number of preliminary surveys there were three complete surveys as demonstrations with 6,300 feet of tile actually laid.

Supervisor Strusinski offered the following Petition No. 4: To the Honorable, the Board of Supervisors of Winnebago County:

Ladies and gentlemen: The petition of the undersigned chairman of the town of Wolf River, Winnebago County, Wisconsin, respectfully shows That the town of Wolf River has voted to construct a bridge as follows: wholly within said town of Wolf River, known as the Miller bridge, located between sections 18 and 19 in said town.

That the town has appropriated the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), to be one-half the cost of the construction of the said bridge, and that cost of said bridge is more than two hundred dollars ($200.00), and its estimated cost is four thousand dollars ($4,000.00), and the assessed valuation of the said town of Wolf River is equalized by the County Board at $1,602,227.00.

The clerk read the following Petition No. 5:

To the Honorable, the Board of Supervisors of Winnebago County, Wisconsin:

Gentlemen: I, C. W. Buck, hereby petition your honorable body to cancel tax certificate No. 244, sale of 1925, for tax of 1924, amounting to \$496.90, covering south ½ of northwest ¼ and all of west ½ of northeast 14 (west) of railroad, section 12, township 18, range 16 east, 113 acrea. Owners: Larson & Clark. Sold to Winnebago county; for the reason that the property intended to be sold to cover delinquent tax of 1924, as that the project in the solution of the solut and your petitioner further alleges, that he became the owner, and was the owner in fee at the time of the aforesaid tax sale of 1925, of south $\frac{1}{2}$ of southwest ¼ of northwest ¼ of said section 12-18-16, by virtue of deed recorded May 1, 1917; that by the aforesaid tax sale and the issuance of the said tax certificate covering the south ½ of the northwest ¼ of said section, town and range, the said certificate 244 became a cloud upon the title of petitioner to the whole of his said land, to-wit: The south 1/2 of the southwest 1/4 of the northwest 1/4, said section, town and range, and

Petitioner further alleges that the taxes for the year 1924 on so much of the description covered by the said tax certificate 244, as is and was owned in fee by petitioner have been paid as shown by the records in the office of the county clerk of Winnebago county, to-wit: Middle 10 acres of S 1/2 of SW 1/4 of NW 1/4, said section, town and range, paid by petitioner Feb. 28, 1925, under tax receipt No. 315; and N. 5 acres of S1/2 of SW14 of NW14, said section, town and range, paid Feb. 20, 1925, as shown by tax receipt 544; and S¼ of S½ of SW¼ of NW¼, said section, town and range, paid Feb. 21, 1925, as shown by tax receipt No. 571; that the said tax was so paid before the said tax sale, the basis of certificate 244, and there could be no delinquent tax on the property of peti-tioner therefore, and the said tax certificate in respect to property of petitioner is void; and petitioner further alleges that said tax certificate is illegal and void on account of indefinite description therein; and said petitioner further alleges, that said tax sale, the basis of certificate 244 and said certificate 244 further illegal and void from the fact that same was doubly assessed in respect to this petitioner, to-wit: assessed to petitioner as aforesaid for which the tax for 1924 was paid as aforesaid; and the premises of petitioner assessed under said erroneous description to Larson & Clark and the tax paid thereon through the illegal delinquent tax sale aforesaid and the issuance of said certificate 244 thereon; and Petitioner further alleges, that he is informed and believes that the county of Winnebago is still the owner and holder of said tax certificate No. 244.

Wherefore petitioner prays that said tax certificate No. 244 be cancelled and the property of petitioner relieved from the cloud created thereby on his said title.

COUNTY TRAVELING LIBRARY REPORT. Miss Elizabeth Lathrop offered the following Report No. 12:

To the Board of Supervisors of Winnebago County:

Gentlemen: The statistical report of the Winne library for the year November 1, 1925 to November
Number of books at the end of 1925
Number of books withdrawn
Number of books purchased
Total number of books at the end of 1926
Number of stations
Circulation in 1925
Circulation in 1926
Loss
The loss in signal then in a second of for how the for	and the statement of a statement

The loss in circulation is accounted for by the fact that few new books were added, and also when the books were returned to the public library no other collections were sent out to take their places. Some collections have not yet been received and hence the circulation of those books cannot be reported.

Many of the books in the county library are entirely useless, as they are too old. For example, there was found in one collection a book of football rules, printed in 1886, and a book on modern Europe published in 1872. Such books are of little value and need to be replaced by material that is up to date. This process of discarding old and worn out books is still going on and will continue until the useless material has been sifted out. Many of the books which statistics enumerate cannot be located.

At the county play and health day at Omro in May, a model county library was exhibited, together with posters made by the children from the country schools. These posters made an appeal for better and more adequate libraries. The same model library was displayed at the country fair in September.

The Winnebago County traveling library has now come to a crisis in its history. It began in 1901 under the supervision of the Oshkosh public library, and functioned under the provisions of the law which stated that sus only might be appropriated for a county library—$200 for books, binding, transportation charges, etc., $50 per year for the salary of the brarian, and $75 for expenses. That was twenty-five years ago. Now since the price of books has almost doubled, and everything has kept pace with that increase, it is impossible to continue this service of the traveling library on that sum.

At the session of the legislature in 1921, laws were passed, granting the power to each county to establish, equip and maintain a county library. This means a free public library for the use of the county, with books and magazines for everybody.

This library, according to the section 43.25 of the 1921 statutes, may be maintained by an annual levy of a tax or by an annual appropriation. The county may establish, equip and maintain an entirely separate, inde-pendent library of its own, or by terms of a contract, enter into an agreement with some already existing library. The headquarters of the county library are usually maintained at the county seat or in some large town. Small collections will be placed in stores, schools, granges, homes, etc. Books will be frequently exchanged and by means of parcel post service, will be sent to any individual in the county.

At the present time it is impossible to find a librarian at a salary of $50 per year, who will do the work necessary to keep up the county traveling library. With $200 for books, binding and transportation charges, it is impossible to buy enough books to supply the demands. Hence, we are calling your attention to the needs of the county in this respect. If libraries are good for city people, they are also good for country people. Today cities would no more do without libraries than they would without schools. Your county needs books. Therefore, gentlemen, we are recommending that in order to supply the needs of your families, your neighbors and your county, that the sum of $3,000 be appropriated for the establishment of a county library, the details of which will be administered by the county library board. The recommendation for this amount is based on a budget approved by the county library board.

This appropriation will increase the tax rate on $100 less than half a cent. For a penny or less, your children would have a county library to give them recreation, information and increased education. In the schools of today, the new methods of teaching demand the use of more than just the mere textbook. The county library will help to provide these.

The farmer needs the county library. In these days of high costs and low prices, he must read and study to know how to make his farm pay. The farmers' wives need books on the easiest and best ways of canning, cooking, sewing, as well as books for enjoyment.

People in the small villages need books to keep in touch with modern affairs and all phases of our civic life.

The county library will bring to every home a variety of good books, old and new. It will furnish expert aid in selecting books for schools and clubs. It will help provide material for programs for every civic organization in the county—granges, clubs, schools, churches, Sunday schools, etc.

The county library is not a new thing. It has been successfully worked out in Brown, La Crosse, Langlade, Marinette, Milwaukee, Oconto, Racine, Rusk and Wood counties.

There are only four public libraries in Winnebago county—Oshkosh, Neenah, Menasha and Winneconne, which serve a total population of 48,292. That leaves 15,605 people in Winnebago County without access to any library.

If at this time it seems inadvisable to grant an increased sum to secure the success of the county library, we are recommending that this County Board now in session take steps to discontinue the Winnebago County traveling library, for it cannot be maintained on the sum of $325 per year. To deprive the county of even the small inadequate service it has received will be a great privation. Because the future of the traveling library is undecided, all libraries have been called in. Many were the expressions of regret from adults as well as children when no new collections were brought to them, and the books they had were taken away.

Gentlemen, the future of the county library lies in your hands. Will it be abolished, or will it be generously supported to add to the enrichment of the lives not only of your children, but of your community? Respectfully submitted, ELIZABETH A. LATHROP, County Librarian.

On motion accepted and placed on file. Mr. George Buckstaff addressed the board with reference to county library matters.

Supervisor White moved that the chair appoint a committee of three to confer with the library board of the City of Oshkosh, to make arrangements, if possible, whereby the City of Oshkosh would furnish the library books to the rural communities. Motion carried. Chairman Loescher appointed as such committee Supervisors White, Wagner and Derber.

Mrs. Margaret Thorn, probation officer, offered the following Report No. 21:

To the County Board of Supervisors, Winnebago County:

Gentlemen: The following is the report of Margaret A. Thorn, probation officer, from November 1, 1925, to November 1, 1926, as shown by her records:

The mothers' pension has served 125 families and given care to 363 children. Besides the 125 pension families, there have been 24 probation cases, 16 of which were referred by the court, making a total of 149 familiies.

The pension families are distributed in the county as follows:

Number of families in Oshkosh	. 86
Number of families in Menasha	. 20
Number of families in Neenah
Number of families in Omro
Number of families in Winneconne
Number of families in Fisk
Number of families in Wolf River
Social Status of Families.	• •
Widows	70
Divorced women	. 19
Deserted women	• 12
Orphans	• • •

Wives of incapacitated men -15 Separated (husband serving prison term)..... 2 Illegitimate child

Of the incapacitated men, seven are permanently disabled and cared for at the Northern Hospital for the Insane; two have been restored to health and are now supporting their families; two others are partly restored. One of these could fill a position requiring little physical strength and as soon as a vacancy occurs, it is hoped he can secure a position as gate-tender for the railroad. In the other case the state rehabilitation department has assisted in establishing a shoe repair shop in home, furnishing machinery, and it is hoped this family will soon be nearly, if not quite self-supporting.

From the monthly statistical reports, the following is the total of work done:

Of these Visits on families 828 Pension hearings (with judge and committee)..... 11 Where the pension has been insufficient in the Oshkosh families, the Bureau of Family Service has supplemented the pension. This has been done in 21 families:

Groceries have been given in these families, amounting to....$571.98

Clothing has been given to these families, amounting to 101.40 Fuel has been given to these families, amounting to 222.01

...$895.39

Total Milk has been given by Charity Circle to five families, amounting $292.38 to

Free medical care is given to the pension families and Mercy Circle has given hospital care to eleven children, four mothers and one father, also dental care to one mother and one father, the total of such relief amounting to......$358.92 Special gifts have been granted by three individuals for rent, treatments and hospital care, amounting to$141.00 In Neenah and Menasha the Emergency Club and the Smith Fund supplemented in some cases. In Omro and Winneconne church friends have assisted.

During the year, there were 40 new applications requiring investigation; 22 of these were granted pensions; 4 were not allowed; the others were found ineligible for financial or other reasons and were not brought in for hearing.

Twenty-eight cases have been discontinued during the year. The causes for discontinuing were:

Marriage of the mother14	families
Sufficient income	families
Return of husband serving prison term 1	family
Pension expired because of child's age 1	family
Health and earning capacity restored to husband 2	families
Child sent away to school 1
Families moved to other counties
The letter were helenged by three cases coming from other

The latter were balanced by three cases coming Irom othe to Winnebago County and securing pensions after attaining residence. Of the 363 children cared for by the mothers' pension, 11 are orphans. All but two of these are in the homes of relatives. The case of these two is an unusual one. A pension mother died, leaving four children. One was taken by a relative. One was adopted by a family who later took was taken by a relative. One was adopted by a raining who later book the other two into their home in order to keep the children together, instead of breaking the family ties by having the children scattered. They are not, as yet, financially able to provide entirely for these two children, so a pension has been granted to assist them in carrying out this fine spirit.

Assistance of individuals and organizations has been given most generously when needed. Many of the boys are in scout troops and the fine influence has a most wholesome effect. The Kiwanis club in Oshkosh is especially interested in the underprivileged child and has done work through the entire year as "Big Brothers." One boy who was on probation was boarded by them for eight weeks at an expense of $40, as it Non mus bought best for him not to be in his home until school began. They are also sending a boy to the Norris farm school for a term of five years at an expense of $15 a month. If you ever find yourselves near Mukwanago, do not fail to visit this school. Daniel Norris will make you welcome and gladly show you about the place. There is a farm of 731 acres, and all the needs for operation of the farm and school are taken care of as near as possible on the place. This serves also to teach the boys along different lines of work. There is a school with four de-partments and four teachers, a small general store, a machine shop, a dairy, a poultry house, a laundry, carpenter shop, and also a barber shop which is in charge of one of the older boys. There is a summer camp on the farm along the bank of the Fox River, where the boys spend the vacation period. At this school the boy's time is entirely taken care of with its provision for education, work and play.

Your probation officer attended the state conference on social work at Milwaukee October 4-5-6 and attended each day the section that studied the mothers' pension work as done in this and other states. The scounties of Dane, Milwaukee, Kenosha, La Crosse, Fond du Lac, Wauke-sha, Monroe, Marinette and Winnebago were represented.

Thirty-six states now grant more than $20 for the first child. Ohio has a maximum of $35. Judge Hall of Minnesota was principal speaker on mothers' pensions. In Minnesota $20 is granted to the first child and $15 to each additional child and other public relief is allowed if necessary. He spoke of the lack in Wisconsin of adequate state appropriation and the need of arousing public opinion on the state's responsibility. The state should live up to its promise of refunding one-third to the counties. When this is done, you will not feel the burden of adequate relief.

A motion was made and passed unanimously that the Wisconsin Conference of Social Work, through its secretary, be asked to call together a group of interested people to form a committee to work for improvement of the Wisconsin state aid law. There is no doubt that one thing for which the committee will work is an increase in the amount allowed.

which the commutete with work is an interaction in the automatic antwell. It is hoped that mothers' pensions will cease to be thought of as what is commonly known as "pauper relief." Your worker has found that it is not unusual for it to be so looked upon. The widow left without means to support her family, or the wife of the husband who through illness can no longer support his family, or the still more unfortunate woman who through desertion is left to support her little ones alone should reeive the mother's pension with as much self respect as the widow of the deceased or incapacitated soldier. While the pension is expected to enable the mother to remain in her home to properly care for it and her children, it can no longer be done with the increased cost of living. The mother invariably must seek employment to supplement the pension. Tt takes "Spartan courage" for her to face her new situation alone when the father drops out and the standard of living cannot be greatly changed if the morale of the family is to be preserved. 'Some of the things which once were called luxuries are now necessities. Several homes where the woman depends upon work in other homes for added income must have telephones that people can easily reach them. One family has a Ford car. It was bought by the deceased husband and could be sold for very little after his death, so it was kept and is used by mother and oldest son in going to and from homes where she cleans and the son is going to and from homes to care for furnaces. This family is ambitious and industrious and expects to be independent of the pension in another year.

There is always danger of encouraging or creating a dependent spirit where help is given, but an effort is made to strengthen the independent spirit and whenever possible to work out a plan for becoming more nearly or eventually seif-supporting as the children grow older. The normal life must have a perfect balance of the five elements—health, education, employment, recreation and spiritual development. Few, if any, acquire this perfect balance although it seems a simple standard. In the broken home, meaning the one without the father, it is still more difficult to acquire this balance. Education and health has become so well organacquire that bounded in the determine in the determine is being consid-ered the children are well cared for in these respects. Employment, rec-reation and spiritual levelopment still are problems upon which much work can be done. When these are adequately cared for, there may be less probation work to be done. In other words, we need to find ways to take care of the unemployed time of our young and to strengthen home life.

There is no money appropriated by the County Board, except in the departments of health and education that gives greater service than the appropriation for mothers' pensions, for it is making possible better citizens for the coming generation.

The provision made last year by the County Board for stenographic help, files and records for the probation office, has been much appreciated and made a better standard of work possible. It is still impossible to make as frequent contacts with the families as is desired by walking and using the street cars. This may be excellent for the health of the worker, but not for accomplishing all that is desired in the work. However, it is felt by the worker and friends of the work that the County Board took a great stride in the right direction when it provided for the work as of last year, and again I wish to say most heartily, I thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET A. THORN, Probation Officer.

Supervisor Spore offered the following Report No. 50:

To the County Board of Winnebago County, Wisconsin: Your committee on roads and bridges, to which were referred various communications relative to the gas and weight taxes for automobiles, beg leave to report as follows:

It is the opinion of your committee that the so-called weight tax is unfair and unjust, and that the only just tax is the gas tax, and that the weight tax should be abolished and the license fee of $1.00 for each car or truck be collected, the same to cover a period of three years, regardless of the weight or horsepower of the vehicle, and that a gas tax of 5 cents per gallon should be collected on all gasoline used in operation of motor vehicles outside of farm uses, as now provided in the statutes.

We therefore recommend the passage of the accompanying memorial. ERNST RADDATZ, AUDIT REPORT.

The report of the Wisconsin tax commission audit was taken up for consideration. Remarks by Supervisors Getchius and Spore. Motion that the report be accepted, and that part relating to the review of the examination be made a part of the proceedings, carried.

REVIEW OF EXAMINATION.

This audit covers a detailed examination of the accounts of the county clerk and county treasurer for the period of January 1, 1925 to December 31, 1925.

The financial records in the offices of the clerk and treasurer were found to be complete and very well kept, as has been the case in the past.

All adjustments and corrections, covering the period audited, which were found necessary, were recorded on the clerk's journal and ledger during this examination. Therefore, the balances presented in this report are in agreement in all cases with the respective amounts shown on the clerk's ledger as entered and corrected to date of December 31, 1925.

REVIEW OF EXAMINATION.

Period Covered.

This audit covers a detailed examination of the accounts of the register of deeds for the three year period January 1, 1923 to December 31, 1925.

Condition of Records.

During the course of this examination, it was found that many instru-ments entered in the general index did not have an amount entered for the In other instances, the fee as entered in the general index fee charged. did not agree with the amount as shown in the "accounts receivable" ledger and collected. Where the records showed that the fees collected were not entered or not in agreement with the general index, the register of deeds has been charged or credited with the necessary adjustment. Where there were instruments entered in the general index but no amount entered for fees and it could not be ascertained by the records that a fee was collected, the register of deeds entered amounts on January 18, 1926 and has been charged on that basis. No attempt is made in this report to state whether or not the amounts as entered by the register of deeds on January 18, 1926 agree with the actual cash collected. Exhibit E, Schedule II gives an analysis of the adjustments to fees reported by the general index. The items appearing in Exhibit E, Schedule II marked with () are the amounts entered by the register of deeds, January 18, 1926.

The statutes provide the fee that the register of deeds is to charge for each type of instrument presented for record. In spite of the statutory requirement, the register of deeds did not maintain a uniform rate of charges during the period covered by this audit. To substantiate this statement, Exhibit E, Schedule VI is presented showing variations in amounts entered as fees in the general index for like instruments.

The record of daily cash collections kept by the register of deeds for the period January 1, 1923 to November 30, 1925 was to make a record of the cash in the drawer at the end of the day. The sum total of these entries for the month would be the amount of cash turned over to the county treasurer. It will be seen from the foregoing procedure that the register of deeds had no record to show that the cash in the drawer at the end of the day reconciled with the total collections for the day.

Section 59.57 of the statutes provided that all charges made by the register of deeds are payable in advance. Contrary to this provision the register of deeds has several accounts receivable at the end of each month. It was impossible to ascertain from the records, during the period January 1, 1923 to October 31, 1925 the exact amount of outstanding accounts at the end of any one month during that period.

For the period January 1, 1923 to November 30, 1925, the register of deeds has not been charged with certified copies of births, marriages, deaths and other certifications which were cash transactions. There was no available record kept of these items during that period.

Changes Made in Keeping of Records.

1-A cash register has been installed and a system devised whereby the register of deeds may have a daily reconciliation of cash. A reading of the cash register was taken on December 31, 1925 and the indicator was the cash register was caren on December 31, 1925 and the inclusion was re-set to No. 23. This same number should appear when a reading is taken on December 31, 1926. It is suggested that the register reading on December 31, 1926, be turned over to the county clerk for record.

2-All certified copies of births, marriages and deaths are numbered and must be accounted for.

3-Charges in the "accounts receivable" ledger are now dated when entered and paid.

REGISTER OF DEEDS' ACCOUNTS-S. G. STOCUM, REGISTER OF DEEDS.

MEMORIAL TO LEGISLATURE ON GAS TAX. Supervisor Grimes offered the following Resolution No. 3: To the County Board of Winnebago County, Wisconsin:

Gentlemen :--- Whereas, the legislature of Wisconsin is now in session, and it is therefore reasonable and proper that we, the local legislative representatives of the people of Winnebago County convey to the state law-making body, direct and unbiased information of the needs and grievances of the people of our county.

And whereas, taxes have become so varied, numerous, burdensome and manifestly unwise, as to constitute a very real and effective impediment to the continued progress and prosperity of the people of our county and state, inducing a condition which is breeding a spirit of rebellion and revolt against law in general, which, in a large measure accounts for the alarming increase in crime and violation of every law of state and nation.

Particularly objectionable is the proposed law to increase the cost of the workingman's popular holiday recreation, by making the price of gasoline prohibitive.

And therefore in order that both senate and assembly may be formally advised of our strenuous and earnest objection to any and all new and old devices for leaching the reward of honest labor and industry into an already overloaded state treasury, be it hereby

Resolved by the County Board of Winnebago County, Wisconsin, in regular session assembled at Oshkosh, Wis., this 10th day of March, 1927, That we are absolutely and inalterably opposed to any increase in the so-called gas tax, unless the weight or license tax, together with the personal property tax on automobiles is thereby abolished and repealed.

Be it further resolved that we heartily commend and indorse the action of Senator Titus of Fond du Lac in his effort to consolidate boards and abolish all unnecessary overlapping and duplicating commissions. And further resolved that certified copies of the above resolution and preamble be mailed forthwith to the presiding officer of state senate and assembly, to the governor of Wisconsin, to our own representatives in both houses, and to Senator Titus, by the county clerk, Geo. W. Manuel.

WM. GRIMES.

Supervisor Grimes brought up the matter of charges being made for transportation of library books. Remarks by Supervisors Wagner, Der-ber, Hart and Lea. Motion that this matter be left to the special committee on library for investigation, carried.

The following resolution was read:

The agricultural committee of the Winnebago County Board had its regular meeting on March 8, 1927. The following resolution was passed: It is the sense of this committee that Bill 128-S, introduced by Senator Barker, should not be passed.

The committee feels that the benefits derived from both offices of the county nurse and the county agricultural agent accrue to the people of the villages and cities as well as to the people of the rural districts. Because of this, villages, cities and rural supervisors should all have a vote confirming the maintenance of said offices and that the respective districts all be taxed for the support of same.

Increasing the proportion of taxation on farmers, as this bill would do, would not meet such favor from the rural supervisors.

The committee feels that should such a bill become a law, the continuance of said offices might become endangered.

Signed: AVERY C. JONES,

Secretary, County Agricultural Committee.

On motion approved by the board, and the clerk was instructed to send copies to the senator and assemblymen from this county.
