1. What is the difference between a “certified” and an “uncertified” copy of a termination of domestic partnership certificate?

A CERTIFIED COPY:

- Is printed on security paper, has a raised seal, and shows the signature of the State Registrar or Local Registrar.
- Can be used for legal purposes.
- Can only be obtained with a direct and tangible interest as defined in Wis. Stat. § 69.20(1).

AN UNCERTIFIED COPY:

- Is printed on plain paper and marked “uncertified.”
- Is for information purposes only and cannot be used for identity or legal purposes.
- Contains the same information as a certified copy.

2. How long will it take to process my request?

APPLYING IN PERSON

Requests for certified copies of termination of domestic partnership certificates are usually completed within 2 business hours of application, if the termination of domestic partnership certificate is on file.

Requests for uncertified copies of termination of domestic partnership certificates are not completed on the same schedule as requests for certified copies. In-person requests for uncertified copies may take up to 1 month to complete.

APPLYING BY MAIL

Requests for certified copies of termination of domestic partnership certificates may take up to 2 weeks plus mail time to complete.

Requests for uncertified copies of termination of domestic partnership certificates are not completed on the same schedule as certified copies. Mail requests for uncertified copies may take up to 1 month plus mail time.

3. What identification is required when applying for a termination of domestic partnership certificate?

Requests for certified copies require proof of identification. Applicant’s original ID is required for in-person applications. A photocopy of the applicant’s ID is required for mail applications.

At least one form of ID must show your name and address. Expired cards or documents will not be accepted.

Examples of acceptable forms of identification include:

One of these:
